

Samples of Student Work B

Student Checklist: Are my questions powerful?

This is one of my questions:

What do you think you have done to <sup>make</sup> things better since you have been elected as Rimbeys MLA

Criteria for a powerful question:

Is the question:	Yes, because ...	No, but here's how I can make it better:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>on topic? Will it give me information I need?</li> </ul>	Its talking about government.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>open ended? Will it give me detailed information?</li> </ul>	Yes because he will think about it
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>interesting? Will it give me new information?</li> </ul>	I will learn what he has done as an MLA
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>respectful?</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>meaningful</li> </ul>	Yes because I will learn about his job.

This is my revised question:

Student Checklist: Are my questions powerful?

This is one of my questions: why did

~~What age were you when you~~ decided to run for Lieutenant Governor?

Criteria for a powerful question:

Is the question:	Yes, because ...	No, but here's how I can make it better:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>on topic? Will it give me information I need?</li> </ul>	Yes, because it is about the Lieutenant Governor?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>open ended? Will it give me detailed information?</li> </ul>	Yes it is because he would have to talk about it more.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>interesting? Will it give me new information?</li> </ul>	Yes, I think it is because I want to know when he wanted to run for Lieutenant Governor.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>respectful?</li> </ul>		Not really but I could change the words around a bit.

This is my revised question:

Why did you decide to run for Lieutenant Governor?

Student Checklist: Are my questions powerful?

This is one of my questions:

How did you earn your job as an MLA?

Criteria for a powerful question:

Is the question:	Yes, because ...	No, but here's how I can make it better:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>on topic? Will it give me information I need?</li> </ul>	yes because it's about MLA and legislative assembly,
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>open ended? Will it give me detailed information?</li> </ul>		No because they could say that they just got chosen,
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>interesting? Will it give me new information?</li> </ul>		No because we already know how they became an MLA.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>respectful?</li> </ul>	Yes because it isn't rude.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Meaningful</li> </ul>		No because we no how they get chosen,

This is my revised question:

How did you get elected as an MLA?

Student Checklist: Are my questions powerful?

This is one of my questions:

What do you think you have done to <sup>make</sup> things better since you have been elected as Rimbeys MLA

Criteria for a powerful question:

Is the question:	Yes, because ...	No, but here's how I can make it better:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>on topic? Will it give me information I need?</li> </ul>	Its talking about government.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>open ended? Will it give me detailed information?</li> </ul>	Yes because he will think about it
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>interesting? Will it give me new information?</li> </ul>	I will learn what he has done as an MLA
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>respectful?</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>meaningful</li> </ul>	Yes because I will learn about his job.

This is my revised question: